

09-42219

NHAS

FILED

AUG - 2 2010

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

LeeAnn O'Brien
2457 Gold St.
Redding, CA 96001

July 28, 2010

The Honorable Thomas C. Holman
United States Bankruptcy Court
Courtroom 32, Dept B.
501 I Street, 6th Floor
Sacramento, CA 95814

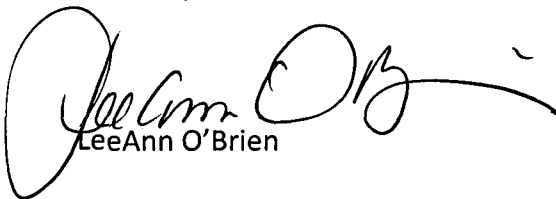

Honorable Judge Holman:

Enclosed for your consideration are individually signed letters from investors in Rosenau Investments, Inc. who want their voices heard outside the small committee that was formed to represent all investors. We as a whole believe the settlement of properties should be treated globally, not individually.

Information we have received from Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually. This plan does not fit the majority opinion of the unsecured creditors in this case. The committee was named by its members, "Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Rosenau Investments, Inc."

Please review the attached letter and the facts we have listed. Your consideration of our request is greatly appreciated. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

LeeAnn O'Brien

Enclosures

CC: Office of U.S. Trustee
Fredrick C. Clement, Attorney at Law

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign

Print Name

Jane Rowan Date Jul 7-7-10
Jane Rowan, President
Rowan & Associates

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Don Barber / Nancy Barber Date 7/1/10
Print Name Nancy Barber
Donald Barber

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign  Date 7/2/10
Print Name PAUL TASLIN

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Larry A. Hopson Date 7/1/10
Print Name Larry A Hopson

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

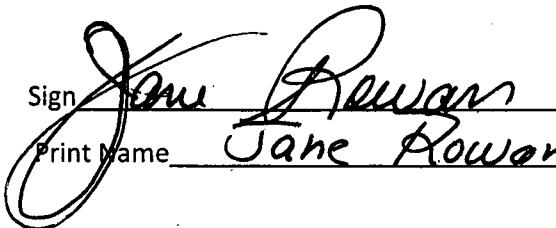

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign

Print Name

Date

 7/7/10
Jane Rowan, Individual

JUL 01 2010 20:25

THOMAS E KURTH CPA

2469939

P. 2

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Mary N Chambers, Date 7/5/10

Print Name MARY N CHAMBERS

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Melvin Charles Hendrickson Date July 5, 2010
Print Name Melvin Charles Hendrickson

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Leanne Weber Date 7-1-2010
Print Name LEANNE WEBER

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Virginia Kay Hendrickson Date July 5, 2010
Print Name Virginia Kay Hendrickson

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign

Jane Rowan Pres Date 7-7-10

Print Name

Rowan Family Foundation
Jane Rowan, President

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign William G. Weber Date 7/6/10
Print Name WILLIAM A. WEBER

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

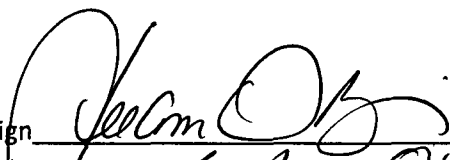

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign  Date 7/6/10
Print Name LEANN O'BRIEN
FOR BETTY CASTLEMAN TRUST

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign E. Robert Wessner Date 7/2/10
Print Name E. ROBERT WESSNER

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign  Date 07/06/10
Print Name Bruce A Anderson DBPP

All Funds Should Go into General
Fund than Split up

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign

Jane Rowan PTR Date 7-7-10

Print Name

Jane Rowan, PTR
Rowan Legacy

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Mary M. Zwaga Date 7-8-10
Print Name Mary M Zwaga

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign  Date 7/8/10
Print Name GALE E. EASLEY

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

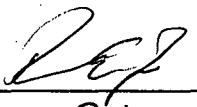

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign  Date 7/13/10
Print Name RICHARD E. ROWAN
ROWAN DEVELOPMENT INC

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign  Date 7/13/10
Print Name RICHARD ROWAN JR.

June 30, 2010

Rosenau Investments, Inc.
Creditors Committee

Information we have received from the Rosenau Investments, Inc. Bankruptcy Attorney indicates an effort to treat the properties individually, (paying individuals who have notes identifying a particular property), rather than globally.

It is our opinion that this act would continue the injustice that was begun by Rosenau Investments, Inc.

These facts have become known:

1. Individuals were moved to properties without their knowledge or permission rendering their notes worthless if the proposal by Rosenau Investments, Inc. is accepted.
2. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. and the individuals loans were placed on over encumbered properties to pay interest on other properties. These loans benefitted those individuals to the detriment of the individuals making the new loans.
3. Monies were borrowed by Rosenau Investments, Inc. to pay a Rosenau family member. These loans were placed on properties that were essentially worthless.
4. Virtually all of the loans are unsecured. To treat the loans as though they were secured would be unfair to a significant number of investors.

We request that this letter be forwarded to the Bankruptcy Trustee. Further, all individuals on the committee that have an interest in the Palm Springs Hotel property should not vote or participate in the discussion.

Sign Phyllis A. Brauning Date 7-6-10
Print Name Phyllis A. Brauning